Falling intonation

↘

Falling intonation describes how the voice falls on the final stressed syllable of a phrase or a group of words. A falling intonation is very common in wh-questions.

Where's the nearest post-office? ↘

What time does the film finish? ↘

Rising intonation

↗

Rising intonation describes how the voice rises at the end of a sentence. Rising intonation is common in yes-no questions:

Is that the new doctor? ↗

Are you thirsty? ↗
